

Wartime Invergordon

Illustrated talk by Allan Kilpatric of the Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historic Monuments of Scotland (RCAHMS)

Drawing on recently discovered plans and photographs, Allan Kilpatrick looks at the evidence of wartime activity in Invergordon during World War I and II. Guaranteed to be entertaining and informative!

Monday, 2nd March 2015
Invergordon Arts Centre

Suggested donation £3.

Further details from 077888 35466 or info@archhighland.org.uk

ARCH provides a range of opportunities for people interested in learning about and helping to preserve their heritage. See our website www.archhighland.org.uk for more information, or contact us on 077888 35466.